Play

Using Actions with Objects

I can combine several different pretend actions in a logical sequence.

- Put sand and stones in my dump truck, drive it over to the pretend building site, and dump it out.
- Give my toy bear a bottle, burp him, and then change his diaper
- Color an envelope and pretend to mail a letter by putting it in a shoebox
- Put my toy animals in a bucket, pretend to give them a bath, then dry them with a towel
- Pretend to wash my toy dishes, put them on a counter to dry, and then put them away

Social Sharing with Objects

I can begin to take on a make-believe role in a pretend play scenario with you.

- Pretend to ride in a tractor and put our hats on while we're reading a book about the farm
- Pretend to serve you food and pour you a drink at our make-believe restaurant
- Pile up sofa cushions with you and pretend we are climbing a mountain
- Put boxes in my wagon and pretend we are at the grocery store, then pay you when I leave
- Pretend to be the doctor and listen to your heart while we play

Social Interaction

Social Attention

I can talk with you about a topic I'm interested in like we're having a conversation.

- Start talking about the tree that fell down while on our walk together
- Point out and name the horses and cows I see while driving in the car
- Talk about the different balloons I see at the grocery store
- Ask what happened to the big pile of leaves we saw in the backyard
- Talk about what we can make with Playdoh today

Intentional Communication

I can let you know how I feel and negotiate when things don't go my way.

- Tell you Mad and stomp my feet, when you ask me to put my favorite toy away
- Say No leave Mimi with a sad face when it's time to go home from visiting Grandma
- Say One more time slide when you tell me it's time to leave the park
- Help figure out what we can do together inside after hearing it's snowing and we can't go to the park
- Let you know I'm mad that you won't let me carry the eggs and instead ask to carry the apples

Emotional Regulation

Sharing & Managing Emotions

I can use my words to share moments of success with you.

- Go to the drawer, find the ice cream scoop, and tell you I got the big spoon
- Say My help when I hold my foot up and step into my pajamas.
- Put my shoe on, close the Velcro strap, then look at you and say Look, I do it
- Say Mommy watch this when I squirt the hose and help water plants
- Say Papa look as I balance a box on my head

Regulating Challenging Moments

I can calm myself down, come back to you, and communicate what I want or need.

- After getting upset when I'm told I can't have snack, I come back and ask if we can go outside
- Calm down and say That's mine after brother takes my favorite truck
- Run out of the room when you tell me it's time to go to bed and then bring you my favorite book
- Say No-no and stomp my feet when you don't give me my own snack bowl, but then say Get my bowl
- Say My banana and pout when you ask me to share with sister, but calm down when you say Ask her to pour you milk

Self-Directed Learning

Understanding Messages

I can create opportunities to learn about things that interest me in everyday situations.

- Walk into the kitchen with my bare feet and tell you it's cold
- Ask you Where they go when the fireflies light up and then disappear while we search for them in the back yard
- Bring a worm I found in the garden, show you how it wiggles, and ask Where him ears
- Help Mommy make a smoothie then tell daddy what we put in it—Banana, salad, and milk
- Look at picture in book and say Mommy look, Teddy bear make dough and Mommy says Like the cookie dough we made

Creating New Ideas

I can try out new things and seek out new opportunities for learning.

- Put on a raincoat and boots so we can take a walk and splash in puddles
- Help wash the car and learn how to spray with the hose to rinse
- Help find the bananas to put in my little cart while we go grocery shopping
- Find a pinecone outside and ask you what it is
- Climb through the new tunnel at the park and find you in the look-out window
